

It should be noted when considering this action that the telephone in my house is my property. I should be have the power to decide who can and cannot call me on my phone. When Telemarketers call, they invade the privacy of my home against my will. The Bankers Assn should not be able to circumvent my wishes against them invading my privacy by petitioning this agency. I have already made my wishes known by my support of the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law.